Ariela,

Being a coach, there are so many ups and downs when it comes to getting the next client. The inconsistency was really becoming a concern when it came to securing my financial future. That all changed when I met you.

You presented me with a way to serve more women by certifying them as coaches who would use my program. You showed me how this could provide consistent income now and in the future.

You're an amazing teacher with a brilliant mind when it comes to making money. Your patience was amazing as I went through the learning curve of what I needed to do.

As a result of the writing I did with you, I was able to finally see the value in what I was doing with women over 50. I got excited about my practice again and found myself attracting new higher paying clients. Thank you so much.

You also helped me get clear on my strengths and what I could do to compensate for the things I didn't love doing. I also learned the importance of setting priorities. I can be scattered trying to do too many projects at once and you taught me how multi tasking just doesn't work.

Thank you again Ariela for all the time you spent with me showing me the ropes to creating my certification program. You provided me with everything I needed whether it was guides for creating Company Overviews, FAQ's, Quick Start Guides, PR Resources, Contracts and your AMAZING WEEKLY SUPPORT to get out there and get started. It's a great program worth investing in! I'm sure glad I did!

Warmly,
