To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter to all of you future authors that are looking for a proven way to bring your creative ideas into reality. Ariela Wilcox can provide that structure for you.

Ariela's help was invaluable. She helped determine the real purpose behind my desire to write a book and helped with the ideal style and format that worked best for my personality. She also helped with editing in a way that helped me deliver a professional quality book I could be proud of.

Ariela made the difference between a desire to write a book and actually writing the book. I cannot thank her enough.

Sincerely,

Anthony Chadwell HHP
